2. The conference theme is "Excellence and Personnel" and we would anticipate your comments to run from 10 to 15 minutes, with an additional period to respond to the questions that are raised by our careerists. We are currently preparing a draft of suggested comments that we plan to have ready for your consideration several weeks prior to the conference. As you will note from the attached agenda, we have scheduled you to address us at 11:00 on 25 September. If any of these arrangements are not agreeable, let me know and we will make acceptable adjustments.
